“And when He had taken some bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.’ And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, ‘This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in My blood’”.

(Luke 22:19–20)

Skipping Passover during the Lenten/Resurrection Sunday season is like going immediately to the end of a good book. While the end of the story is the goal, it is more greatly appreciated when read from cover to cover.

The Messiah in the Passover presentation is a powerful visual message not only of Israel’s freedom from slavery in Egypt, but of the redemption of individuals from the bondage of sin through the atoning work of Jesus. The program is designed to give participants a deeper understanding both of Passover and of the Communion table.

“The Creator of the Earth is the Owner of It”

“The Creator of the earth is the owner of it. He gave us being thereon, and our nature requires nourishment which is the produce of it. As he is kind and merciful, we as his creatures, while we live answerable to the design of our creation, we are so far entitled to a convenient subsistence that no man may justly deprive us of it. By the agreements and contracts of our fathers and predecessors, and by doings and proceedings of our own, some claim a much greater share of this world than others; and whilst those possessions are faithfully improved to the good of the whole, it consists with equity. But he who with a view to self-exaltation causeth some with their domestic animals to labour immoderately, and with the moneys arising to him therefrom employs others in the luxuries of life, acts contrary to the gracious design of him who is the true owner of the earth; nor can any possessions, either acquired or derived from ancestors, justify such conduct.”

Excerpt from “A Plea for the Poor,” pp. 239–40, in The Journal and Major Essays of John Woolman, edited by Phillips P. Moulton — available to purchase on the FUM Bookstore.

Below Calvary

*Tender, falling down the tree
Love
Freely
Scattered abroad
Below Calvary.*

*Gently, flowing blood of God
Grace
Supreme
Love’s requiem
Below Calvary.*

*Tender, rolling river of tears
Join
Glory
And agony
Below Calvary.*

*Rising sweet from death’s misery
Christ
Our Lord
Disciples made
Below Calvary*
