2024 Faith and Community Initiative Annual Conference

Hosted by the Institute for Emerging Issues at NC State University and funded by the Duke Endowment

Join fellow faith and community leaders from around the state to engage in thoughtful discussions around mental health, end-of-life care, digital inclusion, local policies and legislation, financial wellness and more. This conference is an opportunity for faith leaders to connect with community resources to better tackle difficult topics.

The conference will take place at First United Methodist Church in Asheboro, NC. Meals will be included.

Conference Schedule

April 15, 4-7 p.m.: Join us at FUMC Asheboro's ONE Night community resource and worship night. Learn more here. Dinner will be provided.

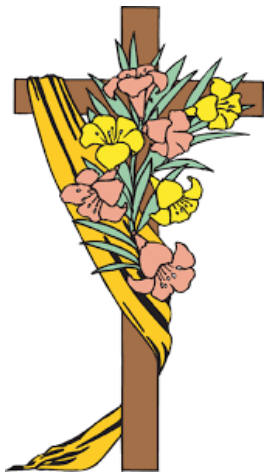

April 16, 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.: Join us back at FUMC Asheboro to hear from our speakers and engage with other conference attendees. Light breakfast and lunch will be provided.
